Notes:

The Ed King piece is one of the very last he made.
J. Coleman now shows internationally (not the same as artist Jay Coleman).
SCAD artist Debora Oden had a show at Arts Southeast in July last year, of like pieces all sold.
Robert Szabo's art appeared on the cover of the April 2005 National Geographic (see link).
Robert T. Cole is the sculptor who made the giant statue at Merriweather Post Pavilion.
Confederate Captain P.V. Guerry was killed in the Civil War at Cold Harbor (racist traitor).
